
DOT
DUTCH OPEN TELESCOPE

Solar active region 10486, observed on November 4 2003 by the Dutch Open Telescope on La Palma, two fays before it sent off the largest flare ever recorded (earth to scale).